

B.6. Systems of Systems Engineering Applications

System of Systems Engineering entails the application of systems engineering and systems thinking principals to systems that are both independent and interdependent, and present unique and complex challenges to stakeholders. This stream is for advances in System of Systems Engineering across all application domains, including defence, aerospace, cybersecurity, transport and infrastructure, and more.

Lead: Usman Khan

Domains: All domains welcome

Submissions Summary: